

The change would greatly enhance safety and customer service